

Tim Hemans
Executive Director
Academies and Career & Technical Education
Gwinnett County Public Schools

Tim Hemans is the Executive Director for Academies and Career & Technical Education for Gwinnett County Public Schools. He is a native of Auburn, NY and moved to Gwinnett County in 2004. He spent 17 years in the classroom as an Engineering teacher before making the move to District Leadership, holding roles as an Instructional Coach, a Coordinator, Director and now the Executive Director.

With over 180,000 students served in Gwinnett County, Tim is responsible for working closely with the local chamber of commerce, regional and state workforce development teams, postsecondary partners, and local business and community leaders to plan, develop, and grow the CTAE programs aligned to industry growth, future readiness, and student interest.