

Steven B. Wagman
National Healthcare Business Leader
Siemens Industry, Inc., Smart Infrastructure Division

Steve Wagman joined Siemens Smart Infrastructure in 2016, as the National Healthcare Business Leader for the healthcare vertical market in North America. This followed a brief retirement, after concluding a 33-year career with Siemens Medical Solutions in 2015, serving as a vice president within the division and as chair of its Diversity and Inclusion Council, a nationally recognized Top 25 Council.

Over the course of his career, Steve has led national organizations in healthcare information technology, revenue cycle, strategic consulting, global services, medical imaging, design & construction services, building performance & sustainability, energy performance services, smart healthcare buildings, and program management for Siemens One strategic healthcare alliances.

Steve represented the U.S. Healthcare division in the global Project Management at Siemens forum, collaborating with international colleagues in the delivery of products and services to customers globally. He also served as the Siemens USA corporate relationship executive to Penn State University from 2007-2015; as Siemens developed a strategic alliance relationship.

Steve is a 1982 graduate of The Pennsylvania State University with a degree in Health Planning/Policy & Administration (HPA). He is a current Penn State University Trustee, which includes a College of Medicine; a member of the Board of Trustees Executive Committee; and a Director for The Corporation for Penn State. Steve is a member of the Board for the Penn State Health System, serving on the Finance, Corporate Governance, and Audit & Compliance Committees for the seven-hospital system.

He is a past president (2019-2021), and member of the Executive Board (2013-2021), for the 173,000 member Penn State Alumni Association and chair of its DE&I Committee; a past Executive Board member of the College of Health & Human Development Alumni Society; Advisory Board member for the National Science Foundation Center for Health Organization Transformation; and served as the chair (2014-2022) for the Corporate Engagement Advisory Committee for the $2.2B capital campaign. Steve is also a student mentor and guest lecturer and is a past president for the HPA Affiliate Program Group. Steve is an alumni admissions volunteer for Penn State and served as a member of the Industry Advisory Board at Penn State Abington for the Division of Social Sciences and Business.

Steve completed coursework in the MHA program at the University of Pittsburgh. He is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE); the American Society of Healthcare Engineering (ASHE); the Association of ERGs & Diversity Councils and has previously served on the Customer Advisory Board for ModSpace/MedBuild Corporation, the Industry Advisory Boards for Live It Business Development and Education Management Solutions, LLC (acquired by Collegis, LLC in 2020). Steve also serves as a volunteer with Special Olympics.
