

Lynda Barrett, MBA

Chief of Governance and Vice President of Strategic Planning for Emory Healthcare
Associate Vice President of Strategic Planning for Woodruff Health Sciences Center

Lynda Barrett has over thirty years of experience in the healthcare industry. She joined the Strategic Planning Office in the Woodruff Health Sciences Center of Emory University in 2008, but has worked in strategic planning for twenty-five years. Lynda was appointed Chief of Governance for Emory Healthcare in 2023. In this role, she oversees the effective coordination of the Emory Healthcare, Inc. Board of Directors and the Woodruff Health Sciences Committee of Emory University.

Lynda received her MBA from Washington University of St. Louis and BS in Finance from Florida State University.