

Krupa Desai, MD, CPE
Hospitalist
Northeast Georgia Medical Center

Krupa Desai, MD, CPE is a hospitalist at Northeast Georgia Medical Center and also serves as a Co- Medical Director of the Hospitalist group and Medical Director of Care Traffic Control. Dr. Desai received her medical degree at M.S. University in India followed by Internal Medicine Residency at East Tennessee State University.

Before joining NGHS as a Hospitalist in 2010, she worked at Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami, FL and HCA hospital in Plantation, FL. She is passionate about efficient patient flow, cutting down waste in the system, collaborating with operational leaders and front-line staff to establish and hardwire standard work and processes to move patients thru the continuum of care while using Technology and Predictive Analytics and cutting down Length of stay.